

Agripreneurship Orientation Programme organized by ABI Draksha

ABI Draskah organized an Agripreneurship orientation programme on 'Grape growing and processing' in the afternoon of 17th October 2024 at ICAR-NRC for Grapes, Pune. Dr Ajay Kumar Sharma, PI of ABI Centre updated participants on objectives and activities of incubation centre. He delivered on present status and overall scenario of available business opportunities in grape processing sector. Other resource persons delivered insight on business opportunities in nursery industry, sensor-based vineyard management, artificial intelligence, microbial formulations, laboratory support system for food safety, etc. Before that a visit to vineyards was also made to impart knowledge on grape growing techniques under tropical conditions. this event was attended by a group comprises of 24 students and 2 faculty members from Narayan Institute of Agricultural Sciences, Gopal Narayan Singh University, Sasaram, Bihar.

